

Application for general register: New graduate application

This application is for Canadian educated and internationally educated new graduates who have not been licensed in another regulated jurisdiction in Canada.

Application checklist

The following requirements must be submitted to the College of Chiropractors of Alberta (CCOA) before your application is considered complete.

General application requirements
1	Application forms  Provide a completed CCOA application form, notarized and signed by a Notary Public or Commissioner for Oaths.
2	Proof of citizenship or work permit	Proof of citizenship, or that you have been lawfully admitted to Canada and are entitled to work in Canada. For example:  • A copy of your passport or birth certificate.  • A copy of your Canadian work visa/permit if you are not a Canadian citizen.
3	Pay all applicable fees (including CCOA annual dues)  • $300 application fee (non- refundable)  • Canadian criminal record check (non- refundable)	<ul> <li>The CCOA will notify you of any dues owed upon evaluation of your practice history.</li> <li>You will receive an email within five business days of your application being received by the CCOA. The email will have login information and instructions on how to submit payment for the required fees.</li> <li>Fees can be paid with a Visa/Mastercard, cheque or money order. You can pay fees via our website after an online profile has been created for you.</li> </ul>
Third-party provided application requirements
4	Canadian Chiropractic Examining Board (CCEB) results	Part A of the CCEB exam may be waived for any applicant that can demonstrate active practice with good standing in another recognized jurisdiction. For more information visit www.cceb.ca .  • You will need to request that the CCEB forward these directly to us. Have they been requested? ☐ Yes ☐ No

5	Doctor of Chiropractic transcript	An official copy of your transcript from an accredited chiropractic college must be forwarded directly to the CCOA from the college itself or your prior regulator. If you are unable to request a copy of this transcript, please contact the CCOA prior to sending in your application.  • Faxes, emails and photocopies of your transcripts will not be accepted.  • Has your official transcript been requested?
6	Cost of your Canadian criminal record check	A criminal record check must be obtained through a CCOA designated provider. Other providers will not be accepted.  The cost of fees will be posted to your member profile as part of the application process.  You will receive an emailed link to complete the criminal record check.
7	Criminal record check outside of Canada (If applicable)	If you have resided in another country within the last five years, you must also submit a criminal record check from that specific jurisdiction (e.g., state). This criminal record check will be obtained through the same CCOA designated provider as above.  The cost for any criminal record check(s) outside of Canada will vary depending on your previous five-year residence history. These fees will be posted to your online member profile and they must be paid within 30 business days from the date of issue or your practice permit will be suspended.

Additional requirements checklist

If you have practiced as a chiropractor or other type of regulated health-care provider for any length of time in another jurisdiction, you must also request a Report on Regulatory History from those regulatory authorities.

• A report on your regulatory history is required from each jurisdiction where you have practiced, past or present, chiropractic or any other regulated health profession.

• The report must be completed by and sent directly from each regulatory authority to the CCOA.

• Applicants may not complete their own Report on Regulatory History.

• Reports on Regulatory History are valid only for 90 business days from the date of issue.

Appeal checklist

If the CCOA determines that you are not eligible for licensure in Alberta, you will be allowed to submit an appeal request If your application for registration is accepted subject to conditions, deferred, or is refused by the Registrar, Registration Committee, or Competence Committee, you will be allowed to submit an appeal request to the CCOA council within 30 days of your registration decision. A request for a review must: 1. Be in writing; 2. Set out the reasons why the application for registration 10 Appeals process should be approved with or without conditions; and 3. Be given to the Registrar, who must give a copy of the request to the CCOA council. After the Registrar receives the request, the Registrar will notify the applicant within 30 days of the date, time, and place at which the council will conduct the review.

Please note all applicants can request access to their application records. There is no fee to view any application records, if viewed within 30 business days of a ruling. If the applicant would like to obtain a copy of their application record prior to 30 days after a ruling, there is a $60 fee to obtain that record. After 30 business days of a ruling, there is a $60 fee (plus any additional courier charges) to view or obtain an applicant's application record.

Mail your completed application and additional requirements to:

Registrar College of Chiropractors of Alberta 11203 70 St NW Edmonton, AB T5B 1T1

Additional information

If an application is withdrawn

If an applicant withdraws their application, in writing, during the application process, the CCOA will return payment for all paid CCOA dues portion less any costs for a criminal record check back to the applicant. The application fee and any fees incurred for a criminal records check are non-refundable.

If an application is incomplete

Applicants will have six months to complete the registration for a practice permit with the CCOA. If the applicant has not completed all the steps to have their practice permit activated, their application will be closed and none of their paid application fees or fees for any criminal record checks will be returned. The CCOA will not retain any documentation associated with a closed application.

Should an applicant want to register after their application has been closed, they will need to submit a new application. The CCOA will return payment for all paid CCOA dues portions less any fees for criminal record checks back to the applicant. The application fee and any fees incurred for a criminal records check are non-refundable.

If an application is unsuccessful

If an application is unsuccessful, candidates may appeal the decision to the CCOA council. Council may take up to 30 business days to review the appeal. If the CCOA council denies the application appeal, the candidate may seek a Judicial Review with the Court of King's Bench in Alberta.

After the appeal period is over, and absent an appeal, the CCOA will distribute the CCOA dues portion less any costs for a criminal record check still owing to the applicant. If an appeal is not successful, the CCOA will distribute the CCOA dues portion less any costs for a criminal record check still owing to the applicant. The application fee and any fees incurred for the criminal records check are non-refundable.

Dear Regulatory Body,

As set out in Alberta's Health Professions Act (HPA), the College of Chiropractors of Alberta (CCOA) must collect specific information in order to licence chiropractors in our province. We require a Report on Regulatory History from your organization that provides the below information regarding the applicant. A consent for release of information signed by the applicant is attached to this report form.

We sincerely thank you in advance for your assistance with this requirement.
